A Message from Bishop Mansour

As we mark the 25th anniversary of September 11, 2001, we join in prayerful remembrance of all those whose lives were lost and forever changed on that tragic day.

We remember the countless lives impacted by the events of that day, especially the first responders, families, and communities who continue to carry its weight. We pray for comfort for their families, healing for those who continue to suffer, and strength for all who serve and protect others.

On this 25th anniversary, may we never cease to remember, never cease to pray, and never cease to hope in the promise of Christ's victory over death.

“Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.” Mt 5:4
