2027 Contribution Envelopes

The 2027 contribution envelopes are available in the back of the church starting this Sunday. If you have been using the envelope system in 2026, you will have the same number in 2027. Envelopes will be issued to the members who used the system before. If you would like to start using the envelope system, you may pick a set , write your name and envelope number so we can add you to our database.

Using the envelope system makes easier on the ushers to count the collection and makes it possible for us to track and acknowledge your donations for your tax purposes.

While we welcome everyone to worship with us, we encourage you to contact the Church Office at (202) 291-5153 if you would like to register in the Parish. You may register online at ololdc.org or ask one of the ushers for the registration form.
